The screenshot shows the homepage of the Ecobatterien website. At the top, the browser address bar displays the URL <https://www.ecobatterien.lu/en/>. The website header features the 'ecobatterien' logo on the left and a navigation bar on the right with the text 'You are Citizen Professional', a search icon, a menu icon, the language 'EN', and a 'Login' button with a lock icon. An arrow points from the URL text above to the address bar. Another arrow points from the 'login' button in the header to the text 'Click on the « login » button' at the bottom. The main content area is divided into two sections. The left section is titled 'Responsible management of resources' and contains text about the organization's approval by the Minister of Environment, Climate and Sustainable Development. Below this text is a button that says 'Learn more by scrolling down'. The right section features a large, circular image of a battery cell. Below this image is a circular icon with two red arrows forming a circle, representing the circular economy. At the bottom of this section is the heading 'Ecobatterien and the circular economy' followed by a line of smaller text: 'Ecobatterien aims to integrate the concept of extended producer responsibility into'. On the far left of the page, there is a partial image of the Earth from space.
